C. For misdemeanor charge(s) only, if the arresting law enforcement officer, based on the circumstances of the case, has reasonable cause to believe that personal recognizance is insufficient or the accused poses a risk of harm, the bail shall be set as follows:

Level of Offense	Bail Amount	Bail shall be posted in cash, surety and/or property. The surcharge of $25 as defined in Ohio Revised Code 2937.22 shall also be collected.
First degree	$ 1,000.00
Second degree	750.00

Fourth degree	250.00
Unclassified	150.00

When the accused is charged with multiple misdemeanor offenses, bail shall only be assessed on the highest level misdemeanor offense. The remaining misdemeanor charge(s) shall be personal recognizance.

If the arresting law enforcement officer or the Prosecutor has reasonable cause to believe that the bail amount indicated above is insufficient, he/she shall contact the Judge or Magistrate for authority to increase the bail amount and/or to set conditions of release pursuant to Criminal Rule 46.

This uniform bail schedule is effective September 29, 2021, for all new charges filed in the Municipal and Area Courts of Butler County, Ohio, and supersedes any previous bail and/or bond schedules.
